The Datai Langkawi 5 Stars

"A beautiful luxury retreat in virgin rainforest, on the secluded Malaysian island of Langkawi."

Hotel Overview

Review of The Datai Langkawi, by John Hatt

I am fairly certain that no other luxury hotel in Asia has a comparable setting to the Datai, which is surrounded by lowland tropical rainforest - a storybook jungle. This is a welcome change from the gardens of most tropical hotels - usually the eternal cliche of screeching bougainvillea. The Datai has been designed to fit sympathetically amongst the huge luxuriant trees, which are still the home of sea eagles, lemurs, and flying squirrels. The scenery is more dramatic than anything in the Caribbean, with the exception of Dominica (where no hotel is anywhere near as good).

For aesthetic and environmental reasons, the Datai has been built well above the beach. This might be a disadvantage to some, who can't handle the 170 steps, but most guests relish the walk, and free transport is available.

Come for...

- Luscious rainforest-sea setting
- Conservation programme funded by hotel
- Pristine private beach
- Beautiful spa

Not Suitable for...

- Nightlife, other than the jungle variety

Eating in

A choice of three hotel restaurants, which cater for both traditional and western cuisine. All enjoy beautiful views of the surrounding rainforest and shoreline. There is also a Lobby Lounge, reserved for the over 12's after 8pm, which serves cocktails and bar snacks.

The Press Say

Hotel Overview

The Leela Goa, a 5-star beach resort, is a contemporary celebration of south India's Vijayanagara Empire temple and palace architecture, and Goa's Portuguese heritage. Tucked away in the South Goa, 47 kilometers from the airport and 18 kilometers from the railway station, this deluxe luxury resort is situated by the Arabian Sea, bordered by the secluded Mabor beach and the active fishing village along the River Sal. Nestled among 75 acres of landscaped tropical gardens and a 10 hole par-3 golf course, the spacious villa-style rooms and suites provide the ultimate leisure experience in gracious living.

Set amidst 75 acres of lush gardens and sparkling lagoons are a total of 137 stylish rooms and suites. All rooms are spacious and elegantly furnished with ceiling fans and central air conditioning, equipped with 25 inch colour TV with satellite channels video cassette players, hi-fi compact.

Hotel Overview

Review of The Legian, by Caroline Major

At the swanky end of Seminyak, beyond the Oberoi and Kudeta, the luxury hotel to choose for a sunset cocktail in Bali is The Legian. Built on the principle that the sort of people who stay here might be the sort of people who liked each other if only they were to meet, the ground floor is a labyrinth of bars, lounges, stretches of beach, gardens and restaurants - all intertwined to provide a large communal living space. The focal point of it all is a fabulous swimming pool, which viewed from ground level seems to merge with the ocean and the horizon in a neat architectural trick that creates a true infinity pool.

"An extravagant escape offering a secluded beach, authentic cuisine and stunning views of the Gulf of Oman and surrounding mountains."

Hotel Overview

Review of The Chedi, Muscat, by Harry Ring

Being constantly referred to as 'the best boutique hotel in Oman' could be something of a let-down when it transpires that the hotel in question is in fact the only boutique hotel in Oman. This lack of choice might concern style-conscious travellers who have ventured past Dubai's metropolitan mayhem into Oman. But who needs variety when the Chedi is this good?

The Chedi lies on a stretch of beach in the Muscat area - a loose term for the 30 km string of towns connected by the country's main motorway. The hotel itself is several kilometres from the motorway, so road noise is not a problem. Aerial noise however, is something to think about since the hotel is close to the airport, (Seeb International is not much as far as major hubs go, but enough to cause a few complaints). The beach here is more exposed than further down the coast, and there are n

 The Chedi, Muscat 5 Stars
"An extravagant escape offering a secluded beach, authentic cuisine and stunning views of the Gulf of Oman and surrounding mountains."

Hotel Overview

Review of The Chedi, Muscat, by Harry Ring
Being constantly referred to as 'the best boutique hotel in Oman' could be something of a let-down when it transpires that the hotel in question is in fact the only boutique hotel in Oman. This lack of choice might concern style-conscious travellers who have ventured past Dubai's metropolitan mayhem into Oman. But who needs variety when the Chedi is this good?
The Chedi lies on a stretch of beach in the Muscat area - a loose term for the 30 km string of towns connected by the country's main motorway. The hotel itself is several kilometres from the motorway, so road noise is not a problem. Aerial noise however, is something to think about since the hotel is close to the airport, (Seeb International is not much as far as major hubs go, but enough to cause a few complaints). The beach here is more exposed than further down the coast, and there are ...

Hotel Overview

Review of The Setai, by Hal Peat

The Setai experience begins beyond the bounds of their front entrance if you are arriving by air into Miami. One of their concierges is there to greet you at Miami International and the hotel's Land Rover whisks you away while providing hot towels and snacks to refresh you during the short hop into town. That concern for enveloping the guest in a serene and unparalleled level of service continues throughout your stay at the Setai.

A new and dramatic addition to the Miami Beach lineup of world-class hotels, the Setai's main guest structure is a meticulously replicated eight-story deco landmark originally built in the late Thirties as the famed Dempsey Vanderbilt Hotel. But it is not just about renovation here; rather about innovation, as this property brings together the pasts of both eastern and western hospitality in a harmonious and imaginative fusion of

CONFIRM BOOKING

Best Price Guarantee

We work directly with hotels to ensure you are getting the best possible price. If you've found the same room cheaper elsewhere, let us know and we'll refund you the difference!

No Special Fees

We don't charge a special booking fee, even for reservations made over the phone. We never charge you to amend or cancel your booking, although the hotel's own cancellation policies will apply.

No Hidden Charges

We display all special information like taxes, service charges and cancellation policies as clearly as possible.

Speak to a Real Person

We have a first class team of luxury travel consultants on hand to help. From the UK, please call +44 (0) 845 544 1520.

If calling from the US, please call 1-877-404-7416.

Or finally, if calling from anywhere else, please call +44 (0) 20 3397 1334.

We accept the following cards:

Read our Security Guarantee
Read our Privacy Policy

Credit card fee: USD 75.74.
Mastercard, Amex and Visa Credit Card purchases are subject to fees. To avoid these pay by debit card.
